Marketing Portfolio

About

I lead integrated marketing strategy that connects brand storytelling, digital growth, partnerships, and operational systems to measurable business and mission outcomes.

My approach transforms marketing from a collection of tactics into a strategic growth engine—aligning audience insights, content ecosystems, acquisition strategies, and stakeholder engagement to strengthen visibility, increase engagement, and drive sustainable growth.

Penthouse Pool Campaign (Summer 2026)

Integrated Campaign Strategy | Full-Funnel Marketing | Brand Repositioning

Led the strategy, creative direction, and execution of Penthouse Pool Club's 2026 summer marketing campaign, repositioning the brand as one of Washington, DC's premier rooftop destinations through a social-first, full-funnel approach.

- Developed the campaign strategy and launch roadmap, beginning with a teaser campaign that built anticipation leading into Opening Day
- Created a phased content strategy that evolved throughout the season—from teaser content and launch announcements to experiential event promotion and urgency-driven "Almost Full" membership campaigns
- Directed campaign photography and video production alongside the content team, producing a library of branded lifestyle assets for use across organic social, paid media, email, website, and digital marketing channels
- Designed campaign creative throughout the season, including teaser assets, Opening Day announcements, promotional graphics, and conversion-focused membership campaigns
- Led a social-first marketing strategy that seamlessly extended into email marketing, paid social, website content, and experiential activations to create a cohesive customer journey
- Managed paid social strategy and creative optimization, continuously refining audiences and messaging to maximize performance and membership demand

- Supported influencer collaborations, rooftop programming, and branded activations that generated authentic user-generated content and expanded campaign reach

Business Impact:

- Successfully repositioned Penthouse Pool Club as one of Washington, DC's premier rooftop destinations for the 2026 summer season
- Earned high-profile media coverage as the #1 Spot in Fox 5's Zip Trip to Navy Yard 5 Must Stops
- Delivered highly efficient paid social performance, with top creative achieving a 4.6% CTR and $0.35 CPC
- Multiple paid campaigns sustained 2–4%+ CTR while maintaining CPCs below $0.70 across scaled media spend
- Built an integrated, social-first campaign that guided audiences from awareness through membership conversion while supporting seasonal events and brand visibility

Pride 2026

Event Production | Brand Activation | Community Engagement

Led strategy, planning, and execution of VIDA Fitness' 2026 Pride campaign, delivering month-long community activations, fundraising initiatives, and experiential marketing across multiple brands.

- Directed the planning and execution of Pride programming across VIDA Fitness and Penthouse Pool Club, creating integrated experiences that strengthened community engagement throughout Pride Month
- Produced and managed the annual fundraising silent auction from end to end, including item procurement, donor outreach, auction setup, promotion, fulfillment, and guest experience
- Secured high-value auction experiences and partnerships with organizations including IMP and Live Nation, alongside premium hospitality, wellness, and lifestyle packages
- Planned and executed Pride-themed Penthouse Pool Club events featuring brand activations, entertainment, and community-focused programming that expanded visibility beyond the fitness clubs

- Managed cross-functional coordination with internal teams, sponsors, vendors, and community partners to deliver cohesive campaign execution across multiple touchpoints
- Supported campaign promotion through integrated marketing including social media, email, digital content, and in-club communications

Business Impact: Expanded VIDA's Pride presence through experiential events, strategic partnerships, and fundraising initiatives that strengthened community relationships while creating memorable, high-impact brand experiences.

Feel Something Campaign (January 2026)

Integrated Campaign Strategy | Full-Funnel Marketing | Brand Repositioning

Managed and executed “Feel Something,” a January brand reset campaign for VIDA Fitness designed to shift away from traditional New Year urgency and refocus towards emotional reconnection:

- Developed full-funnel architecture spanning paid social, UGC, interactive quiz, referral engine, open house activation, and structured training offers
- Directed influencer-led creative including emotional storytelling and satirical pharma-style content to disrupt category norms
- Successfully marketed a “Check Your Spark” quiz to guide user self-selection and drive segmented landing page traffic
- Built mid-funnel retargeting strategy including UGC, optimized around behavioral cues and readiness
- Integrated in-club screens, instructor POV content, and Membership Advisor follow-ups to reinforce messaging offline
- Extended campaign into retention via themed content pillars (Feel Strong, Feel Zen, Feel Energized, etc.)

Business Impact: Elevated brand differentiation, scaled high-performing organic creative into paid, and positioned VIDA as an emotionally intelligent alternative in a crowded January fitness market.
